

O.J.C. No.5263 of 2000

18.04.2017 Heard learned counsel for the parties.

This writ petition has been filed with a prayer to prohibit the opposite parties from evicting the petitioner from his place of business.

Perusal of the counter affidavit, it appears that the petitioner himself has filed a civil suit in form of a Title Suit bearing No.29 of 2000 and in the title suit, the petitioner had also filed an application for injunction against the present opposite parties. Not only the interim application has been rejected but the suit has also been dismissed.

This writ petition appears to have been filed in suppression of all the developments. Similar writ petitions have also been dismissed since long.

Under the circumstance, this Court finds no scope to interfere in the matter at this stage. This writ petition is accordingly dismissed. Interim order passed earlier stands vacated.

....

(Biswanath Rath, J.)